Class _____

By the time he was 29 Muir was working at a carriage parts shop in Indiana. An accident at the shop caused Muir to lose his eyesight. Although his vision returned after a month Muir's short blindness changed his life. He decided to spend more time doing the things that mattered most to him and what he loved most of all were nature. He began therefore the first of many walking trips, covering 1,000 miles from Indiana to the Gulf of Mexico.
