

Course Book Debates

Step 1: Ask your students to flick through the unit just studied, and tick the article, listening text, discussion topic or writing task they found the most interesting.

Step 2: In pairs or small groups, ask your students to discuss their choices, explaining why they chose what they did.

Step 3: Open out the discussion into a whole class activity, monitoring for language and possible motions for debate.